About the Grameen Crédit Agricole Foundation

Created by Crédit Agricole and Professor Yunus, Nobel Peace Prize laureate, the Grameen Crédit Agricole Foundation (GCAF) contributes to the fight against poverty by promoting social entrepreneurship and financial inclusion. Since its creation in 2008, more than €280 million in loans have been granted to more than 120 microfinance institutions and social enterprises working in around 40 different countries. The Foundation currently supports 80 microfinance institutions and social impact enterprises with a portfolio of €90.4 million. It primarily targets microfinance institutions serving women and rural populations. These institutions support over 7 million people, 93% of whom are women and 84% of whom live in rural areas.
