Philippe Dumont, CEO of Crédit Agricole Assurances : « Despite a complex economic environment, Crédit Agricole Assurances posted solid financial results, with rising revenues, a high solvency ratio and strong business momentum. The first half of 2022 was marked by the announcement of our social project and the publication of Crédit Agricole SA's ambitions for 2025, which illustrate our determination to accelerate the energy transition, new responsible offerings in both savings and property-casualty insurance, as well as in the areas of health and ageing well. The sale of La Médicale to Generali, which took effect on 1 July, reflects our determination to strengthen our universal bancassurance model, which will generate significant synergies with the other Crédit Agricole Group entities »

In the first semester 2022, Crédit Agricole Assurances generated a turnover of €20.0 billion, up 2.8% compared to the first half of 2021. The diversification of its business model continues through the development of its priority business lines¹ (protection of assets and individuals and unit-linked products in savings and retirement), which are recording a growth in turnover of +4.2%² compared to the first half of 2021. In a complex economic and financial environment, this increase in turnover reflects the growth generated by our portfolio contracts.

In Property & Casualty, the activity remains very dynamic with a growth in the revenue by +8.0% compared to the first half of 2021, to reach €3.3 billion of premium income, with an increase of +20.7% in Italy. At the end of June 2022, the number of P&C contracts reaches more than 15.5 million, up +3.5% year on year, thanks to a net contribution of more than 334,000 contracts. Pacifica maintains its position as the second largest home insurer in France and rises from fourth to third place in the cumulative ranking of the number of car + home insurance policies³. In addition, Pacifica, one of the few insurers to offer crop insurance, launched the Crop Insurance offer in July 2022, enabling farmers to secure their crop yields against the main climate risks. January 1st, 2022, the transfer of 10 million assistance contracts to Europ Assistance France was successfully completed.

HIGHLIGHTS

On 28th April, Crédit Agricole Assurances presented its social project in which it announced its commitments to the climate, inclusion and the agricultural and agri-food transitions. In terms of the energy transition in particular, Crédit Agricole Assurances is aiming for a renewable energy production capacity of 14 GW by 2025, compared with 5.2 GW at the end of 2020, which is equivalent to the electricity consumption of more than 5 million homes in France. The signing of an agreement to acquire 25% of the Ørsted offshore wind farm project, Hornsea 2, the participation in the Clean Hydrogen Infrastructure fund managed by Hy24, the world's largest fund dedicated to decarbonised hydrogen infrastructure, and the acquisition of 25% of Repsol Renovables will contribute to achieving this objective.

On 1st July 2022, Crédit Agricole Assurances finalised the sale of La Médicale, Crédit Agricole Assurances' insurance subsidiary for healthcare professionals, to Generali. The sale will have a positive impact of €100 million on the Crédit Agricole Assurances group's earnings.

Crédit Agricole Assurances maintains its number one position as the leading life insurer in France in the 2022 ranking of the top 30 life insurers in France¹⁰.
