Appointment

Bernard Muselet is appointed Chief Executive Officer of Crédit Agricole Bank Polska

Bernard Muselet has been appointed Chief Executive Officer and First Vice-President of the Management Board of Crédit Agricole Bank Polska since December 9, 2022. He is also Senior Country officer for Credit Agricole group in Poland and member of the Management Committee of Crédit Agricole S.A.

Bernard Muselet replaces Jean-Bernard Mas who has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of BforBank in November 2022.

With almost 3 800 employees and 1.3 million individual, professional, agricultural and business customers, Crédit Agricole Bank Polska is developing, in synergy with the Group's other entities in Poland, a local universal banking business with a strong position in the consumer credit market.

Bernard Muselet, CEO of Crédit Agricole Bank Polska, Group Senior Country officer in Poland

Prior of being appointed CEO of Crédit Agricole Bank Polska, Bernard Muselet was Chairman of the Executive Board of Crédit du Maroc and Group Senior Country Officer for Morocco since 2019. He previously was Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Ile-et-Vilaine Regional Bank since 2015. He joined the Crédit Agricole group in 2008 as Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Eurofactor in charge of business development in France. Then, he was appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Crédit Agricole Leasing & Factoring, where he was responsible for developing factoring and leasing activities in France from 2010 and, from 2013, for developing both businesses areas in France and abroad.

Bernard Muselet began his career in the Factoring business in France at Natexis Factorem based in the West Indies and Guiana before being appointed Managing Director of VR Factorem in Germany. In 2002, he became a member of the Management Committee of Natexis Factor and then, Director of Business Development.

Bernard Muselet is graduated from SKEMA Business School.
